

CLINT EIKMEIER – DODGE HIGH SCHOOL

In high school, Clint played quarterback and linebacker while leading his team to 3 state titles in 4 years as part of the Dodge Football Dynasty of the 1990's. From 1996 to 1999 he compiled Pirate records for most tackles in a game, season, and career. During that span, he was named 1st Team All-Cornhusker Conference 3 times, 1st Team All-State twice, and was selected to play in the 2000 Eight-Man All Star Game. After high school, Clint was also a standout athlete at the collegiate level. In college, he played linebacker at Midland University where he is the school's all-time leader in tackles in a game with 26 total and in a career with 387 stops. Clint was selected All-Conference and All-American on 2 occasions, as well as being named the Outstanding Male Athlete for the Tigers in 2003. He is considered by many as one of the best defenders in both Dodge High School and Midland University's history. The NEMFCA is honored to welcome him into the Eight Man Football Hall of Fame Class of 2019.
