Falls City, NE.- After uncharacteristically turning the ball over on two of their three possessions and spotting Palmer an 8-0 lead, Sacred Heart exploded for 22 second quarter points, on their way to a 44-16 Class D-2 State Championship game victory. The Palmer defense, who hadn't given up a big play all year, was in shock mode after giving up a 55 yard TD run by Jeff Schawang and 44 yard scoring sprint by QB Steve Simon. Tigers quarterback Clayton Glause also suffered a pair of interceptions in that lethal 2nd quarter.

Hall of Fame Coach Doug Goltz stuck with the run game the remainder of the way with Schawang and Simon accounting for 297 of Falls City Sacred Heart's 343 total rushing yards. The great Steve Simon ended the night with 172 yards on 26 carries with touchdown runs covering 44, 5 and 28 yards. Jeff Schawang piled up 125 big ones on 16 totes with scoring dashes of 55 and 2 yards.
